

From: William P. Crumpacker
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/17/02 9:41pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The company's offer to give a billion dollars worth of equipment to schools in America is an offer NOT to be rejected out of hand. If Steve Jobs fears that will somehow give Microsoft an inside track to the entity that his company has long held a monopoly, then require Gates & Co. to buy half the computers from Jobs' Co.